

Thomas Gwilym and Elizabeth Stewart

Thomas Gwilym married Elizabeth in St Andrew's Church on the 5th August 1721. The ceremony was conducted by Reverend Stewart; a relative of Elizabeth.

Elizabeth was the daughter of the owners of Cotterstock Hall. Her parents entertained the poet John Dryden at the hall and this is where he is reputed to have spent the last two years of his life.

Thomas Gwilym came from Shropshire.